

Employee Training – Working with the Generations

Employee Centric offers a Working with the Generations training class. This class is designed for all employees who want to learn how to work productively together.

Working with the Generations is fun, interactive and hands-on. The class is designed for a half-day session, but may be customized for a one-hour session for speaking engagements and company functions.

Program Objectives:

- Create awareness of the four generational work styles
- Understand what makes the styles different
- Recognize when generational dynamics might interfere with work effectiveness
- Assess and adapt individual behaviors to accommodate generational differences
- Assess and adapt work systems to better accommodate generational differences

Program Outline:

- Introductions
- Course Objectives
- The Four Generations Defined
- Exercise: That was Then, This is Now - My View of the World
- Exercise: Ben Franklin Worksheet – Pros and Cons
- What Works Well?
- Three Levels of Response
- Case Studies: A Diplomatic Approach
